

Carol & Gerry's 2010: a year by the water

This year, we celebrated 20 years of marriage with a cruise among the Cycladic islands of ancient Greece.

We continued to soak up solar energy on the waters of Lake Powell, in the Anazasi desert of Utah.

On the conference trail, we dined aboard ship on Lake Cayuga, with BJ, Liz & grandniece Sage.

Later we attended a wedding on Lake Erie and visited Niagara Falls

Closer to home, we frolicked in the hurricane-energized waves of Cape May, NJ.

During a pre-Thanksgiving Stahl-family fest with Rusty, Zake, Kim & granddaughter Nastasja, we sailed beneath the Golden Gate Bridge.

When Thanksgiving came, we followed the Hudson River from the growing Bliss family (both Kelly/Ryan & Heather/Chris are expecting in 2011) in Troy down river to Alan & Bill in Ossining.

Now we are chilling in Philly, looking forward to the next year's adventures with family & friends.

Best wishes for 2011!

Carol & Gerry

Carol_Bliss@hotmail.com

Gerry@GerryStahl.net

